OGDEN WILL HAVE A NEW NEWSPAPER

Articles of Incorporation Are Filed for the "Ogden Chronicle."

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Nov. 29.—Ogden is to have another newspaper to be known as the Ogden Chronicle. Articles of incorporation, naming J. F. Thomas, present publisher of the "Industrial Utah," a monthly periodical, and B. R. Rowman, proprietor of the Ogden Morning Examiner, as chief incorporators and stockholders, were filed with the county clerk this morning. The capital stock is $10,000 with shares at par value of $10 each. Of this sum $11,500 has been subscribed and $58,500 will be held as treasury stock.

The stockholders are Frank Poulter, A. J. Robin, A. H. Veestra, each taking $500 worth of stock. Of the capital stock the articles state that it is fully paid and non-assessable, and that $2,500 is paid for by taking over the Bullock press, owned by J. F. Thomas. It is generally conceded by those interested in the new concern that the prime object is to secure control of the Ogden Morning Examiner, of which William Glasman is part owner. B. R. Rowman, one of the incorporators, controls a half interest in the Examiner through which, together with a lease on the office property, he controls temporarily the policy of that paper. To shut the Glasman interests out entirely is said to be the motive behind the new publishing company.

Nothing has yet been given out concerning the date of the first issue of the new paper, although it is admitted that nothing will be done until after the first of the year. The new paper will be Democratic.

WEBER COUNTY LICENSES NOW COST $1,200 A YEAR

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Nov. 29.—Saloon licenses in Weber county were fixed at $1,200 by the board of county commissioners in session this morning. An ordinance was also passed making drunkenness a misdemeanor at any of the county resorts outside of the county jail, or to exceed 50 days in the county jail, or a $50 fine, attached.

The increase in the license and the creating of the special ordinance pertaining to drunkenness comes as a result of much trouble at the Canyon Hot Springs resorts during the summer and fall months. The commissioners also fixed a license of $25 for saloon keepers operating in the outside districts of the county.

PRINTS OF BOY'S SHOES LEAD TO HIS ARREST

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Nov. 29.—Through the shoe prints left in the mud under the broken window through which some one entered and robbed the Christiansen grocery store recently, a small boy, whose name the juvenile court officials are withholding, has been connected with the burglary and the boy's father, a youngster committed the crime alone. The boy was suspected of knowing something of the burglary because of the large amount of candy and other dainties he had distributed among his friends. Investigation strengthened the suspicion, as the boy's shoe was found to fit perfectly in the prints frozen in the mud under the window.

Many Friends at Funeral of Prominent Heber City Citizen

WILLIAM BUYS.

William Buys, one of the best known men in the Provo valley, who died at his home in Heber City Saturday, was buried yesterday. The funeral was held at noon and was largely attended. Among those who spoke were Joseph R. Murdoch, state president, J. C. Jensen, Judge A. C. Hatch, all lifelong friends of Mr. Buys, and Dr. Goodwin of Provo. They spoke of the sterling qualities of Mr. Buys and of his life work in assisting in the development of that part of the country in which he lived. Mr. Buys came to the end suddenly. He had been suffering with angina pectoris, otherwise known as "breast pang," an affection of the heart. He had been in Salt Lake for two weeks under the care of Dr. David L. McDonald and four days prior to his death he returned to his home in Heber. Saturday morning after Mr. Buys had eaten breakfast he walked to a rock- ing chair, sat down and expired in less than 30 seconds.

Mr. Buys went to the Provo valley 35 years ago. He was a graduate of the University of Utah and took up school teaching. While teaching he studied law and also found time to revise the school system in the valley and modernize it. He finished his law studies and was admitted to the bars of both the district and United States courts and practiced law for some time. All his life he was much interested in school work and assisted greatly in educational work in the Provo valley. Mr. Buys was also a civil engineer and plotted most of the country in that valley. Twenty years ago he founded The Wasatch Wave, which newspaper was owned and conducted by him until the time of his death. He was 67 years old and leaves a widow and nine children.

In a skating rink at Cheyenne. Two police officers entered and inquired for him. At sight of the blue coats Clepper cut loose his skates and plunged bodily through a window, escaping in the darkness.

WORK ON DOUBLE TRACK.

Improvement Between McCammon and Pocatello to Be Completed.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Nov. 29.—Oregon Short Line railroad officials have announced that the double-tracking between McCammon and Pocatello in Idaho, will be completed shortly after the first of the year. It will mean a great improvement to traffic in that district, as the present system results in many hold-overs and delays of traffic. The grading has been completed and the laying of the track will be rushed.

LAD SAYS HIS FATHER ORDERED HIM TO STEAL

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Nov. 29.—Asserting that his father had sent him to steal valuable lumber from a box car in the Southern Pacific yards, 15-year-old George Rowe, who was arrested with the lumber in his possession last night, has started the police on an investigation that may lead to the arrest of the father. The boy is held at the city jail, and will be charged with petit larceny. The numerous box car robberies of the past week are rousing the police and railroad officials to extreme vigilance.

ROBBERS TAKE JEWELRY.

North Ogden Store Looted of Miscellaneous Line of Trinkets.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Nov. 29.—Working directly under an arc lamp, in plain view of all passers-by, a burglar cut out the pane from the front door of the Marshall Grocery company in North Ogden last night, and after lifting the latch, rifled the place of three gold watches, one silver watch, a dozen razors and a tray of miscellaneous articles of jewelry, which were carried as a side line in the establishment.

The police were notified this morning and are keeping an eye on the pawnshops for the stolen articles. Several suspicious characters, taken in during the day, will be held for investigation.

WORK OF LAYING TRACK HELD UP TEMPORARILY

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Nov. 29.—The discrimination of eastern steel plants against western demand has resulted in the tying up of all work on the double-tracking of the Union Pacific between Green River and Rock Springs, Wyo., and the announcement is now being made by Ogden headquarters that the work will not be completed until June.

With the completion of this track 45 per cent of the Union Pacific will be double tracked.

MINISTERS ELECT OFFICERS.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Nov. 29.—The Ogden Ministerial association held its annual meeting today, electing the Rev. J. E. Carver, president; the Rev. J. W. McCreary, vice president; and the Rev. Noble Strong Elderkin, secretary-treasurer. The association passed a resolution asking the mayor to prevent the prize fight between "Bitter" Collins and Pete Sullivan scheduled for January 7. Mayor-elect William Glasman says he is against prize fights, but will allow "boxing contests."

COMMON PRACTICE.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Nov. 29.—Ell R. Sprague, recently fined $50 in the justice court of Huntsville for selling trout to the idle-wild resort in Ogden canyon, filed notice of appeal to the district court in the county clerk's office today. Sprague's attorney will make the novel plea that the selling of fish to canyon resorts has become so common a practice as to deprive the law of its force.

MERCHANTS TO ATTEND SHOW.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Nov. 29.—Most of the retail grocers and produce stores of Ogden will close all day Wednesday, that the merchants may attend the pure food exposition at Salt Lake. A special train will be run to Salt Lake over the Salt

Lake & Ogden road to accommodate the delegation from this city.

POSTOFFICE RUSH BEGINS.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Nov. 29.—The opening of the local postoffice in the new federal building has greatly facilitated the handling of the pre-holiday rush. A vast amount of mail is being handled daily, and is increasing steadily as the holiday season approaches.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ogden, Nov. 29.—Marriage licenses were issued by County Clerk S. G. Dye to the following couples yesterday: Edwin Leroy Elliott of Castle Gate and Sarah Jensen of Ephraim; Justin M. Green of Mesman, Ida, and Rachel J. Ballantyne of the same town.

ORDINANCES ARE TO BE REVISED

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Provo, Nov. 29.—Wholesale revision of the city ordinances was included in a blanket ordinance passed by the city council tonight. The principal change was in the license ordinance in which the tax on drug stores was revised to $20 for a store with a stock of $1,000 and $4 additional for every $1,000 stock up to $5,000 and $5 a thousand above $5,000. This ordinance places the ordinance at about twice the figure for other mercantile institutions.

The passing of the ordinance brought out a discussion regarding the prohibition ordinance which goes in effect January 1, and it is believed by many that this ordinance will be repealed before it goes in force and a strict regulation of the liquor traffic embodied in a substitute ordinance.

The "drys" argue that with the executive department of the city government, the ordinance is a "wet" ordinance cannot be enforced and it will be better to have a strict regulation of the liquor traffic than a prohibition ordinance which cannot be enforced.

The council issued an order instructing the judiciary committee to employ necessary help to go over the city records from the incorporation of Provo and make copies of all franchises and resolutions now in effect.

EXPOSURE BRINGS DEATH

Ben Sparks of Ephraim Expires After a Terrible Experience in a Storm.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Ephraim, Nov. 29.—Ben Sparks, one of the prominent young men of this city, died at his home after suffering for several days as a result of exposure during the recent cold weather. He was herding sheep near Frisco in the employ of Tuttle & Company of Mantle. Monday of last week he left the home and went on a trip to Frisco for the mail, he was returning late in the evening when his horse stumbled, throwing him to the ground and rendering him unconscious. The night was bitter cold and when found the next morning by the herders he was nearly frozen. He was taken to Frisco and with much effort they succeeded in reviving him, and he was then sent home, but owing to the fact that his legs were badly frozen there was no chance for his recovery, and he died yesterday after intense suffering. Mr. Sparks was one of the highly respected men of this community and leaves a wife and eight children; the oldest being only 16 years of age. The arrangements for the funeral have not been made.

SEEKS DIVORCE.

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Provo, Nov. 29.—Eileen M. Clifford brought suit for divorce today from Harry R. Clifford, her husband, in the district court. They were married in Salt Lake in September, 1905.

INDEPENDENT CREAMERY PROJECT AT RICHFIELD

Producers Act Favorably on Plan to Benefit This Important Industry.

Richfield, Nov. 29.—James A. Faust of Salt Lake has been here for the last two weeks working quietly among the dairymen for the establishment of a co-operative creamery, cold storage and ice plant for this part of the country. It is said that, owing to indifferent treatment of the milk producers of this district, comprising Sevier, Wayne and Piute counties, that the production of milk and cream has fallen off from an income of over $200,000 a year to less than half of that amount. The plan proposed by Mr. Faust has been received with a good deal of enthusiasm, and within the next thirty days plans for the erection of buildings and equipment will be well in hand.

It is proposed to erect the principal buildings at Richfield and make this the headquarters of the company. Such men as A. R. Hawley, Eph. Dastrup, W. H. Seegmiller, P. A. Westman and George Brinkhoff, wealthy dairymen of Wayne county, are at the head of the movement. The promotion of the company has been kept a secret until now, as it was not desired that the competition of creameries should become active enough to injure the proposition until the milk producers had been shown the advantages of the new company. The producers will all take stock in the new company, so that they will reap the benefits of the marketing of the finished product as well as receive the highest price for their milk and cream. In every town visited the proposition has met with enthusiastic endorsement.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE TO MEET AT MONROE

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Richfield, Nov. 29.—Superintendent E. M. Greenwood has just issued the call for the county teachers' institute to be held at Monroe next Friday and Saturday. The program includes, "How to Teach Grammar in the Grades" and "How to Teach Spelling in the Grades." These subjects will be treated by local teachers. Dr. Joseph Peterson of the B. Y. U. will be the lecturer during the institute and he will treat the same subjects. Special music will be furnished by the county musicians, and the people of that town with their customary hospitality are preparing to take care of the visiting pedagogues.

BONDS FAVORED FOR SEVIER COUNTY ROADS

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Richfield, Nov. 29.—A circular letter was sent out yesterday by Road Commissioner Hans Turtur, arranging for the holding of a town in the county for the presentation of the proposition to bond the county for a good road fund. The chairman of the good roads association of the county and he expects to make trips to the various towns and have the matter presented to the people so that a petition can be sent to the county commissioners asking for a special election to vote on the bond proposition. There is much enthusiasm manifested in the county for good roads.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS ORDER SOME SUITS FILED

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Provo, Nov. 29.—The county commissioners today ordered the county attorney to bring suit for damages against all sheep and cattle men who have been trailing their flocks and herds through Provo and American Fork canyons. The amounts involved will reach a total of about $500. The commissioners decided to continue the improvement of roads and to levy assessments when necessary to keep up the work.

MAN HELD FOR COURT ON CHARGE OF FORGERY

(Special to The Herald-Republican.)
Provo, Nov. 29.—Frank Hamilton was arraigned before Justice A. A. Noon today on a charge of forgery. He waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to the district court under $1,000 bail. Hamilton was arrested last Friday after he had passed a check for $25 on Walker Brothers bank signed with the name of "L. S. Hickock," and attempted to pass a check on a Provo bank, signed by John M. Wilson. Both checks were declared to be forgeries.

SIX MONTHS IN JAIL.

Industrial Workers of the World at Discount in Spokane.

Spokane, Wash., Nov. 29.—John Paner one of the leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World, convicted of conspiracy, was sentenced today to six months in jail at hard labor. Evidence was introduced showing that Paner had come to this city to fight the ordinance regulating street speaking and that he had sent telegrams to nearby towns calling for "men to fill the jails in Spokane."

Ten more street speakers were arrested today. More than twenty have abandoned the "bread and water strike" in jail and have agreed to break rock in order to secure three meals a day.

STUBBORN BLAZE FINALLY SUBDUED

Fire in Photograph Gallery Threatens Suffocation for Many Sleepers.

Firemen fought their way through dense clouds of blinding smoke in the Newell building, 15 West Second South street, last night and rescued half a score of guests who were being fast suffocated in the rooming house located directly over the photograph gallery of Dean & Hunt, where a stubborn fire started in the developing room at about 10 o'clock. Although the firemen had a fight of one hour and twenty minutes on their hands, the loss amounted to only $500 in the photograph establishment and $250 to the building. The origin of the fire was not learned, but when hose companies Nos. 1 and 2 arrived on the scene, the thick black smoke was filling the gallery and the rooms above and a number of guests in the rooming house were in danger of being suffocated by the smoke. The doors of several rooms were found to be locked and the inmates were carried to the air by the firemen who groped their way within and broke down the doors. All were quickly revived and were none the worse for their experience, although a few moments' time would have made their rescue a matter of doubt. There was little flame connected with the fire in the rooms below and most of the damage was done by the smoke and the water, it being necessary to drench all of the lower story before the blaze was drowned out. A private safe may be rented in the fire and burglar proof vault of the Salt Lake Security & Trust Co., 32 up Main street, $2.00 per year and upwards.
